The term "flea market" shall not mean and shall not apply to any event which is organized for the exclusive benefit of any community chest, fund, foundation, association, or corporation organized and operated for religious, educational, or charitable purposes, provided that no part of any admission fee or parking fee charged vendors or prospective purchasers or the gross receipts or net earnings from the sale or exchange of merchandise, whether in the form of a percentage of the receipts or earnings, as salary, or otherwise, inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or person participating in the organization or conduct of the event; or any event at which all persons selling, exchanging, or offering or displaying merchandise for sale or exchange are manufacturers or licensed retail or wholesale merchants. Flea markets shall not include developed and operating shopping centers, antique stores, jewelry stores, coin shops, salvage operations, clothing stores, or special sales events as accessory uses not to exceed 14 days, or other businesses of merchandise in common with flea markets where the vendor therein is not operating among a collection of vendors or renting or securing individual space within an overall operation.

Flea market promoter, operator, or owner means any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or other form of business entity which owns, operates, maintains, manages, or promotes flea markets.

Flea market vendor means any person, individual, firm, corporation, partnership, or other form of business entity of any type or character who engages in the retail sale of merchandise at a flea market. "Flea market vendor" shall not include licensed second-hand goods dealers or pawnbrokers.
